Exorcisms: What Catholics Need to Know | Chris Stefanick Show

Scripture says, "Be sober and alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, solid in your faith." In other words, the Christian life involves spiritual combat. But a lot of Catholics aren't really familiar with this idea. So to start unpacking it, we're talking to Fr. Chad Ripperger, an exorcist priest.

Blessing of Candles on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, Friday, February 2

A very joyous, festive and beautiful day is coming up on the liturgical calendar this week and I would like to take a moment to call your attention to it: the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, on Friday February 2.

Please be sure to see the information we have elsewhere in this bulletin concerning the meaning of this feast day, and the blessing of candles which will take place at the 6:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. weekday Masses. Make it a point to attend Mass on this day, "Candlemas," as it is sometimes called, even if you're not in the habit of going to Mass during the week; it will be a beautiful celebration. Bring candles to be blessed, as explained in the bulletin blurb. In addition, we will celebrate the 12:15 p.m. Mass on Friday with an appropriate festivity by having music at that Mass.

Blessing of Throats on Saturday, February 3

Then, on Saturday, February 3, we'll celebrate another beloved day in our Catholic tradition, the Memorial of St. Blaise. On this day we will include the traditional blessing of throats within the weekday Mass at 8:00 a.m., as the conclusion to the Universal Prayer. So, come to Mass on that day and get your throat blessed!

Still recruiting new Ushers!

We're still in the process of recruiting new Ushers. This is such an important and vital ministry that I hope you will seriously consider stepping forward and offering your service. A full description of what's involved can be found elsewhere in this bulletin, and, as I keep reminding people, it's something that you can do as a family, parents and children together.

The service that Ushers provide goes beyond just the tasks they do. The Usher ministry is invaluable in creating a reverent and prayerful atmosphere for worship, which enables all of us to enter into the sacred actions of the liturgy in a more profound way. As an Usher, you will be helping people to encounter God more profoundly and will be helping them to nourish their relationship with Jesus. What could be better than that?

If you're not already involved in a ministry, please consider becoming an Usher.

Mardi Gras on Sunday, February 11

I want to call your attention to our upcoming Mardi Gras celebration and invite you to plan on being part of the fun and festivity. The celebration will be on a Sunday afternoon, the last Sunday before Lent begins, February 11, immediately following the 12:00 Noon Mass. We'll begin by gathering in front of the school to burn the palms we've brought back, the ashes of which will be used on Ash Wednesday. After the burning of palms, we'll head into the auditorium for the ice cream social and other Mardi Gras festivities!

See the ad elsewhere in this bulletin for complete information, and I look forward to seeing you there. Be prepared to go a little crazy before we settle down to the seriousness of Lent!

Bring back old palm

So, speaking of burning palms, we are once again inviting you to bring back old palm branches for us to burn at the beginning of our Mardi Gras. Baskets for you to deposit the palms can be found in the church. If you have forgotten to do this in past years...this is the year to remember!

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday will be here before you know it — February 14! Take note of the schedule of Masses and Word Services during which you can receive ashes. It's not too early to begin thinking about your Lenten penance and Lenten discipline this year — beyond what you might give up for Lent, what spiritual practice and/or act of service toward others can you take on and do as a prayerful "extra," so that you can deepen your relationship with the Lord Jesus this Lent? Think about it and pray about it!

By the way...since this year Ash Wednesday falls on February 14, all you marrieds and sweethearts out there will have to plan to celebrate Valentine's Day on another day, since that day is now a day of fast and abstinence!

In conclusion...

Together, let's aim high in Christ.
Together, let's bring out the best in each other.
Together, let's be the best we can be in Christ.

And let's always remember: LOVE IS A GIFT.

Sincerely,

ASH WEDNESDAY

SPECIAL FEAST COMING UP

THE FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD – FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2

Friday, February 2 is the feast of the PRESENTATION OF THE LORD. This feast stands both logically and in the calendar between the Nativity and the Death and Resurrection of the Lord. The baby of Bethlehem is presented in Jerusalem, the place where the Paschal Mystery will be fulfilled. This feast leads us to the core of salvation history.

The heart of this feast is found in Christ as the light of nations, and in the meetings with Simeon and Anna (and us). This festival was reported in Jerusalem at least as early as the year 386, and soon came to include a torchlight procession and the title of "Meeting" (the meeting of Jesus with Simeon and Anna). It was celebrated on February 14, the fortieth day after Epiphany. A little later, the commemoration of this event began to be observed in Rome on February 2, the fortieth day after Christmas. The carrying of lights was seen here, too, at an early date, giving rise to the name "Candlemas" or "Light Mass," making this day a feast of light. We remember not only that Christ is the light of the world, but that we bear the responsibility to carry the light of Christ to every corner of the world.

We will be offering a special blessing of candles at the weekday Masses on the feast of the Presentation of the Lord. On Friday, February 2, bring with you to Mass any candles you would like to have blessed for the coming year, e.g., vigil lights, devotional candles, or any other candles. Also, to celebrate this Feast with the appropriate level of solemnity, we will have music at the 12:15 p.m. Mass that day.

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” - Luke 2:29-32

THE MEMORIAL OF ST. BLAISE, BISHOP AND MARTYR

Blessing of Throats on Saturday, February 3, the Memorial of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr

8:00 a.m.

Saturday, February 3 is the Memorial of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr. Saint Blaise was the bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the fourth century, and it is believed that he was martyred in a persecution in the early fourth century. His association with the healing of throats arose from a legend that while he was in prison he cured a boy who had a fish bone stuck in this throat. The practice of blessing throats with two crossed candles seems to have arisen in the sixteenth century when devotion to St. Blaise reached its peak.

Here at OLPH, we will be blessing throats during the weekday Mass at 8:00 a.m., as the conclusion to the Universal Prayer (the Prayer of the Faithful), as indicated in the Book of Blessings.

FIRST FRIDAY AND SATURDAY DEVOTIONS

All are invited to come and pray with our parish community.

First Friday Devotions will take place February 2 after the 6:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Masses.

First Saturday Devotions—in honor of Our Lady of Fatima—will be conducted Saturday, February 3 beginning with the Rosary at 7:40 a.m., Mass at 8:00 a.m. and continued devotion following Mass.

Each month, all are invited to join the members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society for Eucharistic Adoration beginning at 6:30 p.m. Reflecting the diverse community present at OLPH, each hour of the evening is celebrated in different languages (Polish, English, Spanish). The evening concludes with Benediction at 9:30 p.m.

Special Needs
Mass

BRING PALMS TO BE BURNED FOR USE AS ASHES

We are all familiar with the practice of receiving ashes on Ash Wednesday, which this year is February 14. The ashes are a sign of the public penance to which we are all called during the Lenten season. As we promise to repent and believe in the Gospel, the ashes are a sign of our commitment to the journey of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, a journey which ends with the new life of baptism and baptismal renewal during Easter Time. Penitential acts are undertaken as a community, as together we journey to the cross and resurrection.

What you may not know is where the ashes come from. Very simply, the ashes used on Ash Wednesday are the ashes from palms saved from Palm Sunday the previous year, which have been burned.

This year we once again invite you to share in our communal celebration of Ash Wednesday in a special way. We ask you to bring old palms from your home and deposit them in the baskets which will be available. These palms will then be burned at our Mardi Gras celebration on Sunday, February 11, and used as ashes on Ash Wednesday.

Please join in this meaningful gesture of community and solidarity as together we prepare to embark on our Lenten disciplines.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Each Monday, parishioners pray to seek the help and assistance of the Lord for healing, family, children and the needs of the world, seeking the intercession of the Blessed Mother. Take some time each Monday to join in the OLPH Novena.

Mondays at 12:45 p.m.

BRINGING FORWARD THE OFFERINGS OF BREAD AND WINE

If the announced intention at Mass is for your intention, or if you have memorialized the bread and wine, and you would like to carry those offerings forward at the Presentation of the Gifts during Mass, please be sure to let the ushers know this before the Mass begins. They will be happy to have you do this. If no one steps forward to specifically request this, then they will select people from the assembly.

REMINDER REGARDING THE COMMUNION FAST

Please remember that we are supposed to observe a Communion Fast before receiving Holy Communion. This means we do not eat any foods or drink any liquids for one hour before receiving Holy Communion, the only exception being water or medicine. This also means that we are not to chew gum during Mass, and certainly not while we are coming forward to receive Holy Communion. Let's be sure we are appropriately prepared to receive Holy Communion by observing this important rule of the Church.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

This weekend we congratulate Michael Rizzi, who is becoming a catechumen in a ceremony taking place at the 12:00 p.m. Mass on Sunday, January 28. This is Michael's first official stage in the process of initiation into the Catholic Church. This Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens is an occasion of great joy for him and for us as a parish community. We offer our prayerful support and best wishes to our new catechumen, Michael.

Beginning next Sunday, Michael will join our other catechumens, Helen, Diego, Ailen and Ameira, as they attend Mass together and are dismissed with a special prayer after the Liturgy of the Word, to continue their prayer, reflection, and formation in Catholic Christianity. This dismissal is meant to be a sign of our special care and hospitality for these people as we pay special attention to them, nurturing them in the faith, since they are not yet able to share in the Eucharist. It is also meant to create a special hunger in them for receiving the Lord in the Eucharist, and their dismissal can also be for us a stark reminder of the privilege and gift of being able to share in the Eucharist.

Please feel free to greet and welcome this newest member of our worshipping community, Michael, and please remember him and all our catechumens in your prayers, as they journey toward the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation at a future Easter Vigil.

USHERS NEEDED FOR ALL MASSES!

We are at the present time in need of more parishioners to serve as Ushers.

Here's what's involved:

- Ushers serve at Masses on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation.
- Ushers are also asked to serve at other times throughout the year at special parish occasions and liturgies.
 - In addition to collecting the money offerings and distributing church bulletins after Mass, Ushers are responsible for welcoming, guiding, assisting and directing parishioners.
 - The Usher ministry is open to everyone and is a great ministry for an entire family to do together.
 - Ushers are required to complete the Safe Environment Requirements and attend two meetings a year, one in the spring and one in the fall.

If you are interested in becoming an Usher, fill out your information below and give it to an Usher, or place it in the collection basket.

A WORD ABOUT RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION AND GOOD HEALTH

As we come to celebrate Mass together each week during these days when respiratory illnesses are at their peak, it's a good time to review some common-sense liturgical practices and issues, to help everyone stay healthy and to care for one another.

• Mass Attendance: MOST IMPORTANTLY, IF YOU ARE SICK, PLEASE DO NOT COME TO MASS! There is no obligation to attend Mass if you are sick; it is not a sin to miss Mass for this reason. Also, there is no need to go to Confession if you miss Mass because you are sick. Personal prayer and reflection on the Sunday Scripture readings is encouraged; many people also enjoy viewing the Mass on television. Your weekly monetary offering may be mailed to the rectory, or simply added to your offering the next time you come to Mass.

• Receiving Holy Communion in the Hand Rather Than on the Tongue: All are encouraged to receive Holy Communion in the hand rather than on the tongue; this is vastly a more sanitary method. If it is necessary for you to receive on the tongue, we ask you to wait and come up at the end of the line, to be the last communicants to receive Holy Communion. Your cooperation with this is appreciated.

• Communion from the Chalice: The Precious Blood will continue to be available for those who wish to receive the Precious Blood of Christ in addition to the Body of Christ. Obviously, communicants should refrain from drinking from the chalice when one has a cold or is fearful of being infected.

A LETTER FROM BISHOP BARRES

DIocese of Rockville Centre
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 28, 2024
Catholic Schools Week

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, the Church throughout the United States takes the opportunity to celebrate the gift of Catholic Education during Catholic Schools Week which begins today and concludes on February 3, 2024. As Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, I want to express how incredibly proud I am of our Catholic Schools in the ways that they evangelize our young Catholics here on Long Island.

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis says, "Catholic schools, which always strive to join their work of education with the explicit proclamation of the Gospel, are a most valuable resource for the evangelization of culture" (§134). This mission-driven approach to Catholic Education is especially fitting as the Church in the United States participates in a national Eucharistic Revival, because the mission of the national Eucharistic Revival is embedded into the mission of Catholic Education. Assisting students to know and love Jesus through the transformative power of the Mass, and equipping them to evangelize their families and communities, is an extraordinarily beautiful and achievable goal that our Catholic Schools strive to achieve each day.

As schools throughout the Diocese celebrate Catholic Schools Week 2024 with Masses, open houses, and other various activities, we give thanks to the Lord for those who make these events and Catholic Education as a whole possible. To the dedicated and faithful administrators, teachers, and staff members: thank you for working tirelessly every day to advance the Church's evangelizing mission by your love for Christ and by helping his children to know the presence and power of his love in their lives. To the many parents and guardians who generously offer so much time to assist your pastors and principals in advancing the mission of Catholic Education in your parish and regional schools: your love for Christ and his Church is inspiring, and I am so grateful for your Good Samaritan charity, dedication, and perseverance. In addition, I want to express my gratitude to the Morning Star Initiative and the Department of Education staff who collaborate and work together to provide every student in our Catholic Schools with an education that is robustly Catholic, academically excellent, safe and supportive, and sustainable.

St. John Bosco, a patron saint of school children, understood the essential mission of Catholic Education in the world. He once said, "If we want to have a good society, we must concentrate all our forces on the Christian education of the young." Because of the fantastic work being accomplished in our Catholic Schools, I think we can have great hope in the future of society here on Long Island: a future that is filled with young Catholics who are on fire for Jesus Christ and his Church!

Through the intercession of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton, the patron saint of Catholic Education, Saint John Bosco, and Mary, Star of Evangelization, may the Lord continue to bless the Morning Star Initiative, the Department of Education, our Catholic Schools, and all those involved in Catholic Education on Long Island, especially our students!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Saint of the Day!St. Paul Miki

St. Paul Miki was born in Tounucumada, Japan and was educated at a Jesuit college. He joined the Jesuits in 1580. St. Paul
 Miki was a compelling preacher.
 He was jailed with other Catholics, and was forced to walk 600 miles to where he would be crucified. He was crucified on February 5, 1597 with twenty-five other Catholics
 during a persecution of Christians, and he nobly forgave his persecutors. He died a holy martyr for his faith in Christ.

Scripture of the Day

“I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.
 Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them.”

Baptism ceremonies are held on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. Parents wishing to have a child baptized must attend a baptism preparation session before the baptism; these sessions are held on the first and third Thursdays of the month excluding holidays. Contact the Parish Office to begin the process of having your child baptized.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Those who are seriously ill or facing surgery, as well as those in danger of death, should receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Please call the Parish Office and ask for one of our priests.

CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Adults who wish to be baptized, or who have been baptized in another Christian faith and wish to become Catholic, or who have been baptized Catholic and wish to be confirmed and receive Holy Communion, are invited to join the process of the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. Please contact Jeffrey Gaab at (631) 965-0076 or e-mail at jsg375@gmail.com to begin the process.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Adults who have been baptized Catholic and who have received Holy Communion but who still need the Sacrament of Confirmation should enroll in our Adult Confirmation Classes. Please contact Deacon Robert Becker at 631-226-6175 or e-mail to DeaconRobert@oloph.org.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Please contact the Parish Office at least SIX MONTHS before the desired date of your wedding.

PRAYING FOR AND SUPPORTING ONE ANOTHER

FOR THOSE WITH CELIAC DISEASE

Special hosts are available for those with Celiac Disease who cannot receive Holy Communion using the usual bread. These hosts contain less than 0.001% gluten content and are approved for the Roman Catholic Church by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. If you need to receive Holy Communion using one of these hosts, please stop in the sacristy before Mass begins to discuss this with the priest. We will be happy to accommodate you.

Preparándonos para las lecturas del domingo 28 de Enero del 2024 - Ciclo B

Señor Dios nuestro: En esta asamblea eucarística nos has reunido más íntimamente por tu palabra poderosa y por el banquete festivo de la eucaristía. Cuando volvemos a nuestra vida diaria, sigue proclamándonos tu mensaje liberador incluso en los acontecimientos corrientes de nuestra vida y en la amistad de nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Abre nuestros oídos y corazones a tu lenguaje, siempre nuevo, que nos conduzca a ti por el poder de Jesucristo nuestro Señor.

Primera Lectura (Deuteronomio 18,15-20): Los irrealitas siempre esperaban un profeta superior a los demás que dirigiera al pueblo entero como lo avía hecho Moisés. Véase la pregunta que le hicieron a Juan ¿eres tú el profeta? Ver hechos 3,22-26

Segunda Lectura (1 Corintios 7,32-35): Libres para el Señor

Todos estamos llamados a la santidad. Pablo subraya las ventajas del carisma del celibato: los que no se casan están libres para dedicarse al Señor y sus asuntos.

Evangelio (Marcos 1,21-28): palabra de victoria sobre el espíritu del mal. Su enseñanza es nueva, y contiene el poder de la acción del mismo Dios que realiza lo que dice como la luz vence a las tinieblas. El resultado final, es la liberación del mal: Esta lucha contra el espíritu del mal se abre a todo el evangelio que nos presenta Jesús siempre dedicado a descubrirlo y a eliminarlo.

La reflexión del Evangelio de hoy nos muestra cómo Jesús enseñaba y actuaba con autoridad, lo que lo diferenciaba de los demás predicadores. La auténtica autoridad es la que tienen aquellas personas que ayudan a los demás a sacar adelante la vida, a organizarse, a caminar. Jesús es un hombre de autoridad. Y la ejerce. A veces despertando lo dormido. Otras, oponiéndose a fuerzas contrarias. Siempre buscando el bien del otro. Hasta dar la vida. La cuestión, pues, no es tener autoridad o no tenerla. La cuestión es cómo ejercer esa capacidad. ¿Cómo manifiesto o ejerzo mi autoridad?

THE CHURCH IN NEED

This weekend January 28, 2024 a collection will be taken for "The Church in Need." The monies collected at this time will be shared among three areas of the world where there is particular need for help:

Church in Central and Eastern Europe - this collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that struggle to recover from former communist rule. It also aids communities throughout the region that are affected by the war in Ukraine. Funds support pastoral care, catechesis, renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region.

The Church in Latin America For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

The Church in Africa – The Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa supports pastoral projects to build the capacity of the Church and foster lasting peace and reconciliation across a continent often marked by division and tension. Although the Church in Africa is growing, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care.

Thank you for your generosity.

PREPARING FOR

Sunday, February 4, 2024

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

Mark 1:39

Job 7:1-4, 6-7

Most people know of Job as a man afflicted by extreme suffering (loss of family, wealth, and health) that came about because Satan saw that he was righteous but complained to God that it was only because he was prosperous. Let him suffer and he would surely curse God, said Satan. Yet even in the lengthy complaint we hear from Job today, who understandably is feeling very low because of his troubles, we don't hear Job curse God. Job's anguish and despondent laments are attempts to find reasons for human sufferings but no easy answers can be found. God wants to hear from us in all our troubles even if there is no immediate relief in sight. Don't be afraid to tell him how you feel!

1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul tells the Corinthians about himself in today's reading. He says that the core of his ministry is to preach the Gospel, that is, to be an evangelist announcing the Good News of Jesus. But he doesn't boast about his ministry since he received his calling as an obligation or necessity. He couldn't do anything other than preach – it's his mission and duty in life. Paradoxically, he feels a profound freedom in doing what he was meant to do. When we do what God wants us to do, we too can feel the same freedom.

Mark 1:29-39

Jesus pursues his mission in today's Gospel by preaching and healing many people. First, he heals Simon's mother-in-law, then a crowd from the whole town that was at his door, and finally people throughout all of Galilee. We can learn much from these lessons. The healing Jesus brings, whether in body, mind or spirit, is a sign of the fullness of life we can have in the kingdom of God. Once we encounter Jesus and are healed by him our response should be like Simon's mother-in-law: get up and serve. We too can participate in Jesus' mission and that of his disciples by bringing the Good News to others.

Gospel Reflection

After reading next Sunday's readings take some time to pray on them before you come to Mass. Use the questions below to aid your reflection.

1. Do you think this text was written to tell people about Jesus the miracle worker? Are miracles a confirmation of Jesus' message of salvation? What did he say was the "purpose for which he came?"
2. "Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed." How does this fit with his tireless effort to carry out God's ministry? How close are you to Jesus in using all your energy for some purpose? What is that purpose?

Readings for the Week

Take time each day to read the daily readings of the Church.

MERCY SOUP KITCHEN SEEKING VOLUNTEERS. It is an exciting time at the Mercy Soup Kitchen of Wyandanch as it is preparing to launch its new and expanded post Covid operation. Located in the basement of Trinity Lutheran Church at 17 South 20th Street, the Kitchen served its first meal to hungry people in 1980 and currently serves an average of 108 people per day.

During the pandemic, however, Kitchen procedures had to be modified in order to provide hot, nourishing meals safely and continuously to those in need. Indoor sit-down dining was discontinued and only take-out dining was available. But today the Kitchen is posing for a post-Covid reopening – a reorganizational rebirth of sorts – where Kitchen procedures can finally return to again offering guests dignified, indoor sit-down dining. The Kitchen relies heavily on its generous volunteer support and, as such, numerous on-site and off-site volunteer opportunities are now available.

While there are openings for on-site positions, such as helping to prepare and serve meals and to perform various maintenance functions, there are also openings for diverse off-site positions in areas such as finance, grant development and preparation, legal compliance assurance, marketing duties, social media facilitation and fund raising/donation coordination.

Only with the efforts of its volunteers can the Kitchen succeed in its mission to provide food security to those in need. Please consider sharing some of your time and talents with the Kitchen to make this happen. We invite you to join our team. For further information, contact Vito Colletti at 631-358-9917 or vcolletti@optonline.net.
