PASTOR'S PAGE

Easter Sunday! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Happy Easter!

The Lord has risen from the dead! Jesus is alive! He has conquered death, and so we need never fear death again! We have risen with him and have everlasting life with him, and we have the forgiveness of our sins! The crucified-risen Lord is in our midst! As we sang at our Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night, "Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph! Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness." Alleluia, Alleluia!

I take this opportunity to wish everyone a very Happy Easter, and I speak for the entire OLPH Pastoral Staff in wishing you and your family many blessings today and every day during this fifty-day season of resurrection and new life. As Catholics, we look especially to the power of the Lord's resurrection as the Risen Christ continues to lead us to new light and new life as we emerge from the darkness of the coronavirus pandemic. What a difference a year makes: we were not able to gather for public Masses last Easter! All around us are signs of new life and restored hope; let's never forget that those gifts always have their origin in God, who gives life and who restores life. Such is the heart of our faith as Christians who follow the same path as the Crucified-Risen Lord Jesus!

Easter is our greatest feast and the center of the liturgical year; it's important for us to make sure we give it the centrality it deserves. Look for a special Easter Time insert elsewhere in this bulletin that explains the meaning of the liturgical season and highlights some important liturgical elements.

Easter Sunday Vespers (Evening Prayer)

The Sacred Paschal Triduum, our three holiest days of the year, began on Holy Thursday evening with the Mass of the Lord's Supper and ends tonight, Easter Sunday night, with Easter Sunday Vespers (Evening Prayer). I hope these Great Three Days have truly been holy days for you, days that were "time outside of time" that allowed you to enter into the great mysteries of our salvation.

I would like to encourage everyone to celebrate Easter Sunday by praying Evening Prayer with your family or with others; it would be a great way to mark the day at the end of the day. We have included an insert in this bulletin which gives a simple prayer service that you can use. Perhaps you could use this as your prayer before your big meal on Easter Sunday. Let's do all we can to celebrate our faith in every circumstance and situation, and to bring our faith traditions from the church building right into our homes! Look for our special Easter Sunday Vespers insert.

THANK YOU to all for a beautiful Sacred Paschal Triduum!

Even though we had to make adaptations necessitated by the safety protocols required because of the pandemic, we have nonetheless had an absolutely amazing celebration of Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum once again this year, and I have to say THANK YOU to the numerous ministers who offered their time, their presence and their service to make it all happen. I hesitate to mention names for fear of leaving someone out, so suffice it to say that we all owe a huge debt of gratitude to everyone who worked during Holy Week, whether it was "in front of the scenes" or "behind the scenes" — all the liturgical ministers, including clergy, readers, EM's, ushers, musicians, sacristans, altar servers and ministers and catechists in our RCIA process; those who decorated church: our Liturgy Committee; the our maintenance crew; and parishioners who assisted in many "behind the scenes" aspects of setting things up for or cleaning up after liturgies; those who handled the technology so that we could livestream so many liturgies. So many people put in so much time, energy and love! To anyone who participated in any way, and most especially to all who participated as members of the assembly, bringing your "full, conscious and active participation" and your witness of faith to our worship as a "person in the pew": THANK YOU for making OLPH "the place to be" for Holy Week and the Sacred Paschal Triduum this year. We have all enriched each other through the offering of our gifts to one another as disciples following Christ. What a great gift the Lord has given to us in the gift of being able to worship together once again this year! Gathering as the Body of Christ, the liturgical assembly, is something we must never, ever take for granted.

Easter Week

This week coming up is the Octave of Easter, as the joy of Easter Sunday continues to be celebrated in an intense way; each day this week has the liturgical rank of Solemnity. The Glory to God in the highest continues to be used each day this week, as does the solemn dismissal at the end of Mass with its double alleluia. (These elements end on weekdays after the Second Sunday of Easter.)

If possible, why not consider coming to Mass on one or more, or even all, of the weekdays this week, in order to mark the festivity of this Octave of Easter? Our daily Masses are celebrated at 6:30 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Monday through Friday, and at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday.

Blessing of your home at Easter

Elsewhere in this bulletin we have included a special ritual for Blessing Your Home at Easter. It is traditional to bless the home during Easter Time, and I encourage each and every family to pray that blessing together at home. It's a ritual that you can pray yourself, using holy water. Of course, if you would like your house blessed by one of the priests, just ask us...we would be very happy to come and do a blessing at some point during the fifty days of Easter Time!

Supporting OLPH through Amazon purchases

OLPH participates in AmazonSmile, a fund raising avenue associated with Amazon.com.

AmazonSmile is the program whereby OLPH receives a 0.5% donation from all eligible purchases on Amazon; all you have to do is be sure to select OLPH as your designated charity when you make purchases through smile.amazon.com. You enjoy the same wide selection of products, low prices and convenient features as on Amazon.com; the difference is that when you shop on AmazonSmile, donations in the form of a percentage of the purchase price are made to us (you don't make the donation - AmazonSmile does, from their foundation funded by the purchases). There is absolutely no cost to OLPH to be part of this, and for you, the shopping experience is identical to the usual Amazon experience, except that the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate to OLPH when you select us as your charity. You do not pay anything additional.

Would you help support OLPH by signing up for this? I'm already signed up for it and have used it! It's safe, easy and costs nothing. It's easy; just use our direct link at http://smile.amazon.com/ch/11 -1797184 and you'll be signed up! Full details are explained elsewhere in this bulletin. Also, please tell everyone you know about this; spread the word so this can be a success for OLPH.

Brick Memorialization in the "Let the Children Come to Me" Prayer Garden

As you can see from the flyer printed elsewhere in the bulletin, you still have the opportunity to memorialize bricks in our beautiful "Let the Children Come to Me" Prayer Garden on the south side of the church.

Please consider memorializing one or more bricks. Even if you have already memorialized a brick here at OLPH, I'm sure there's another person or intention you would like to have memorialized; you're not limited to only one! Please see the order form elsewhere in the bulletin, and feel free to tell all your family and friends about this so they can participate too. Remember: you don't have to be a parishioner of OLPH to memorialize a brick...for that matter, you don't even have to be Catholic! Thank you for your consideration.

Journal Ads for the 150th Anniversary Journal

If you have not already done so, please take an ad in the special Commemorative Journal in celebration of the parish's 150th Anniversary; use the order form elsewhere in this bulletin. This is a great way to offer your congratulations to our parish on this milestone, or to advertise your business, or to honor someone you wish to put in the spotlight! The Commemorative Journal is an important fund raiser and a big part of our Anniversary Year celebration, so we're looking for many, many people and many, many businesses to take out ads. Please be sure to participate, and spread the word to your family and friends.

Anniversary Year Commemorative Items for sale

Also, many beautiful items celebrating our 150th Anniversary continue to be on sale; see the order form in this bulletin, or use the special link on the homepage of our website www.olphlindenhurst.com to order online. Your purchase of these items is a great support to the parish. Supplies are limited, so get them while they last! Tell your family and friends about this, too!

Catholic Ministries Appeal

The Catholic Ministries Appeal continues this year at OLPH. Our goal is $111,600, and I am grateful all of you who have already submitted your pledges. Thank you! Please remember, we cannot do without the income we receive from the Catholic Ministries Appeal rebate. We need that income to keep from "going under," so we need your support.

Keep in mind, too, all the wonderful ministries throughout Nassau and Suffolk Counties the Catholic Ministries Appeal supports: Catholic Charities (feeding, clothing and sheltering the needy); programs of formation and training for future priests, deacons and lay leaders; programs of ministry to those in prison; substance abuse services and day treatment programs; and Youth Campus and Young Adult ministries, to name a few. Thank you for your generosity!

Second Sunday of Easter, Sunday of Divine Mercy

The Second Sunday of Easter, next Sunday, April 11, is also referred to as "Divine Mercy Sunday," and OLPH will be participating in special devotions to mark the day; full details are described elsewhere in the bulletin. Please plan on joining in some or all of the special events.

Little White Book

Look around the church for the 2021 edition of the Little White Book; there may still be some copies left on pew ledges. If so and if you don't already have one, be sure to take one. The book contains daily meditations for each day of Easter Time. The books, enjoyed by so many parishioners, are a great way for you to pray each day during the fifty days of this great season of Easter Time and to be united more deeply to the Risen Lord who shares His risen life with us.

LIVING THE EUCHARIST PROGRAM CONTINUES

As a continuation of the Living the Eucharist program, Chris Ferraro, our Director of Music, will offer two virtual presentations on the Mass on Tuesday, April 6 and Tuesday, April 13 at 7:00 p.m.

We will use the same Zoom link that we have been using for the other Tuesdays of Lent (see the parish website). Participation in the Living the Eucharist program is encouraged but not required. Over the two sessions, Chris will walk participants through of the Mass and will unpack the rich theology the Mass texts and ritual gestures. Please join us to deepen your appreciation of the Mass.

Faith Direct

Now might be the time to sign up for Faith Direct, the e-giving service we use, if you are not already using it for your weekly financial offering. It's safe, easy, and once set up, you never have to worry about missing a week in giving your monetary offering to the parish. You set up your account, you decide the amount and when it will be withdrawn from your account, and then it's done — it happens automatically! Then you have the peace of mind of knowing that when you cannot get to Mass, you are still offering your financial support to your beloved OLPH.

I use Faith Direct; that's how I make my weekly offering to the parish. Please give serious consideration to signing up for Faith Direct. It is a great help to us. Full information and directions for signing up can be found elsewhere in this bulletin.

In conclusion...

Together, let's aim high in Christ. Together, let's bring out the best in each other. Together, let's be the best we can be in Christ.

And let's always remember: LOVE IS A GIFT.

Sincerely,

magn. Spe

HELP NEEDED TO WATER THE EASTER FLOWERS

Help keep our beautiful Easter plants and flowers alive! We need people to offer to take turns to come in and water the Easter plants and flowers during the seven weeks of Easter Time, starting the week of April 4. It will take only a little while once or twice a week, starting at 12:45 p.m. on a Tuesday and/or a Thursday, and your commitment will be minimal. Your responsibility will end when we return to Ordinary Time after May 23 (Pentecost). It's a great way to do something helpful for the parish that does not require a huge ongoing commitment. It's something you can bring your child with you to do! Won't you help us out? Please contact Denise Martinez at countrydee02@gmail.com or by TEXT ONLY at (631) 575-9519 and she'll give you all the details and sign you up. Thank you!

We encourage all parishioners to use this picture of the Paschal Lamb, placing it in a front window in your home, facing the street, throughout the entire Easter Season, until Pentecost (May 23).

PROCLAIM TO THE WHOLE WORLD THE VICTORY OF THE RISEN JESUS!

EASTER SUNDAY EVENING PRAYER

The Sacred Paschal Triduum concludes with the celebration of Evening Prayer on Easter Sunday. While we won't have a communal gathering in church for Evening Prayer, we invite you to pray at least a shortened version of Evening Prayer to bring the Triduum to a close. This could be the prayer before Easter Dinner or at the end of the day before sunset.

Introductory Verse

Leader :	God, + come to my assistance:
All :	Lord, make haste to help me.
Leader :	Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
	and to the Holy Spirit,
All :	as it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen. Alleluia

Hymn (all sing)

Jesus Christ is risen today, alleluia. Our triumphant holy day, alleluia. Who did once upon the cross, alleluia. Suffer to redeem our loss, alleluia.

Antiphon

Leader: Mary Magdalen and the other Mary came to see the Lord's tomb, alleluia.

Psalm 110 (all recite together)

The Lord's revelation to my Master: "Sit on my right: your foes I will put beneath your feet."

The Lord will wield from Zion your scepter of power: rule in the midst of all your foes.

A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. "You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old."

The Master standing at your right hand will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath.

He shall drink from the stream by the wayside and therefore he shall lift up his head.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever, amen.

Antiphon

All: Mary Magdalen and the other Mary came to see the Lord's tomb, alleluia.

Reading from Scripture Hebrews 10:12-14 Reader: Jesus offered one sacrifice for sins and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are placed beneath his feet. By one offering he has forever perfected those who are being sanctified.

Antiphon

Leader: This is the day the Lord has made; All: let us rejoice and be glad, alleluia.

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Father . . .

Concluding Prayer

- Leader: O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
- All: Amen.

Conclusion

Leader: May the Lord + bless us, protect us from all evil and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen.

THE FIFTY DAYS OF EASTER TIME

THE MEANING OF THE SEASON

Alleluia! He is risen! The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one "great Sunday." With Easter Sunday we begin Fifty Days of rejoicing.

During these Fifty Days the Church continues to instruct the neophytes (the newly baptized) about the new life they have embraced. In the process, all of us are called to reflect on the meaning of our baptism and on what living the baptized life looks like. What does it mean to live the resurrected life of Christ? What does it mean to be Church? How do we live life now that we have died with Christ and have been raised up with Him?

The neophytes spend this time in post-baptismal formation (which is also referred to as mystagogical catechesis). It is an opportunity to unpack their experience of the Easter sacraments and to reflect on what it all means for their life now as members of the Church.

The readings of the Sundays of Easter Time offer the opportunity for such reflection. This year, the first readings of these Sundays are from the Acts of the Apostles (as they are every year), the second readings are from the First Letter of St. John, and the Gospels are from St. John (except for the Third Sunday of Easter). The readings from Acts give us a picture of life in the early Church, as the apostles began preaching the good news of the resurrection, encountering both joyful welcome and opposition. The readings from the First Letter of St. John echo the Gospel readings from St. John's Gospel, consistently affirming that God is love and that the one who loves abides in God in a mutual indwelling. Such indwelling calls us to love one another the way God has loved us; that's the only way we can truly show that we love God. The Gospels from St. John present us with a Jesus who has been Lord from the start of time. St. John uses many metaphors to help us understand our relationship with the Lord—the Good Shepherd, the True Vine, and the Bread of Life are important images in St. John's Gospel.

These readings offer not only the neophytes, but also all of us, the chance to reflect on the meaning and shape of our life of faith together. Like the early Church, we are a people shaped by the resurrection, a people called to share our joy and the good news with others, a people freed from sin and filled with the life of the Holy Spirit, a people who constantly give thanks for all God's gifts, a people who have risen from the font to a whole new way of life.

FIFTY DAYS OF CELEBRATION

Part of the challenge of Easter is learning how to celebrate a fifty-day feast! Perhaps as Catholics we find it easier to do penance than to celebrate; we find it easier to observe the forty days of Lent than the fifty days of Easter. Part of the problem lies with placing too much stress on Lent as "the" religious period for Catholics. For many people, unfortunately, Easter Sunday still seems to be simply the end point of Lent; come Easter Monday, it's back to everyday life as usual.

The truth is, however, that we are called to maintain the festivity and celebration throughout the entire fifty-day period as one joyful feast; there's an entire season following Easter Sunday that should be anything but everyday life as usual. Easter, Ascension, and Pentecost are not three separate, independent feast days, each with its own themes. They are all part of the one Easter celebration.

THE STRUCTURE OF THE SEASON

Easter Time is composed of three phases, but these internal variations in rhythm never should eclipse its unity as the great Fifty Days.

1. The Octave: The first eight days are celebrated almost as one exuberant festival, with each day celebrated as a Solemnity. The tradition of mystagogical catechesis during this time influenced the selection of the Scriptural passages. Each day has the liturgical rank of Solemnity.

2. The 31 middle days: The Gospels of the Sundays give focus to the season of Easter Time. The first three Sundays of Easter relate post-resurrection appearances. The Fourth Sunday always focuses on the powerful image of the Good Shepherd. The next three Sundays of the season (and many of the weekdays nearby) draw from what has come to be known as the "farewell discourse" or "high-priestly prayer" in the Gospel of John. (While this paschal season can include references and hymns to Mary, the paschal references and overall unity of the Fifty Days should not be compromised by excess attention to May as "Mary's month.")

3. The final days: The season does not end on Ascension Thursday! Over the following nine days (the original novena!) and then on Pentecost day itself, we are invited into intense prayer for the gift of the Holy Spirit. Easter Time ends at the conclusion of Pentecost Sunday.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

To highlight the "original novena" of the nine days between Ascension and Pentecost, and to focus on those days as days of intensely praying for the coming of the Holy Spirit, OLPH Parish will engage in a Novena to the Holy Spirit. Look for more information on this later in Easter Time.

CHURCH ENVIRONMENT DURING EASTER TIME AND CELEBRATING THE SEASON

Many rich symbols and images pervade the Fifty Days, linked in various ways to initiation. The resurrection inaugurates a new creation, the eighth day, a new Pentecost, a new covenant, a new way of life.

The Paschal Candle will remain prominently displayed near the ambo during the Fifty Days, and it will be lit for all liturgical celebrations. The new holy oils used in the celebration of the sacraments have been enthroned in our ambry.

New life will abound in our parish as we celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation throughout Easter Time. Children will be celebrating their First Holy Communion at certain parish Sunday Masses throughout Easter Time and at additional Saturday morning and afternoon Masses on May 8 and May 15. The Sacrament of Confirmation will be celebrated for our teens at separate Masses on May 22, 24, 25 and 27 and at the 10:00 a.m. parish Mass on Sunday, May 23. This year, due to COVID (like last year), a bishop will not be coming to administer the sacrament, and Msgr. Joe, as Pastor, will have the honor of doing so. These events are connected as part of the Easter complex of initiation rites, as Easter is the season par excellence for celebrating initiation.

We will highlight the initiatory character of Easter Time each Sunday by beginning Mass with the Rite for Blessing and Sprinkling of Water, recalling our baptism. Also, we will continue to use the Apostles' Creed during Easter Time, since that Creed is often referred to as the "Baptismal Symbol of Faith."

Also, there is a strong tradition of blessing homes during Easter Time, a blessing which can be arranged for with one of the priests by calling the rectory, or by using the home blessing provided elsewhere in this bulletin.

As we celebrate the Fifty Days of Easter Time together, may we all come to a deeper appreciation of the Risen Lord's presence in our midst, as the Lord calls us to share in fullness of risen life with him through the sacraments and through our life together.

BLESSING OF YOUR HOME AT EASTER

It's traditional for families to bless their home sometime during the fifty days of Easter Time. Pick a special day and use this prayer service to bless your home and your family during Easter Time. Be sure to use newly-blessed Easter water!

All who live in the house should be present for the blessing.

(All make the sign of the cross as the Leader begins:)

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All respond: Amen.

Leader: Let us praise God, who fills our hearts and homes with peace. Blessed be God forever.

All respond: Blessed be God forever.

Leader: The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ, risen from the dead, who is our source of hope, joy, and comfort. May all who enter this home find Christ's light and love.

(Now someone reads the Scripture reading, Luke 24-28-32:)

Reader: Listen to the words of the holy Gospel according to Luke:

As the disciples approached the village to which they were going, Jesus gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?"

The Gospel of the Lord.

All respond: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

(The intercessions are then said:)

Leader: The Son of God made his home among us. With thanks and praise let us call upon him. Our response will be: Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, through you every dwelling is a temple of holiness: build those who live in this house into the dwelling place of God in the Holy Spirit. We pray:

All respond: Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, the disciples recognized you in the breaking of the bread: grant that the members of this family may be open always to the presence of Christ in Word and sacrament. We pray:

All respond: Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, you appeared to the frightened Apostles and said, "Peace be with you"; grant that your abiding peace may remain with the members of this family. We pray: All respond: Stay with us, Lord.

(After the intercessions, all pray the Lord's Prayer:) Leader: Our Father...

(After the Our Father, the leader prays the prayer of blessing with hands joined:)

Leader: Lord, we rejoice in the victory of your Son over death: by rising from the tomb to new life he gives us new hope and promise. Bless all the members of this household and surround them with your protection, that they may find comfort and peace in Jesus Christ, the Paschal Lamb, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

All respond: Amen.

After the prayer, the leader may sprinkle those present and the home with holy water brought from the church. During the sprinkling the leader says:)

Leader: Let this water call to mind our Baptism in Christ, who by his death and resurrection has redeemed us.

(After the sprinkling, all make the sign of the cross as the leader concludes:) Leader: May Christ Jesus dwell with us, keep us from all harm, and make us one in mind and heart, now and forever.

All respond: Amen.

LITTLE WHITE BOOK FOR EASTER TIME

There may still be some copies of the LITTLE WHITE BOOK for Easter Time available on the pew ledges throughout the church. The Little White Book contains brief daily reflections for each of the 50 days of Easter Time, new for 2021. Many people have enjoyed the Little Black Book for Lent, and it is important to not stop with the end of Lent, but rather to continue to explore the richness of the Paschal Mystery by continuing our daily reflections throughout all of Easter Time. The books are provided free of charge, but if you wish to make a donation THE LITTLE WHITE BOOK to help offset the cost, you can just put a little something extra into your next collection offering. Thank you.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Confessions are being celebrated in the school building, in classrooms in the "new school" annex along High Street every Saturday, 4:00 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. until further notice. Each priest will be in his own classroom.

These are the protocols that must be followed for going to Confession: ► Entry is only via the blue doors at the north end of the hallway (off of the small parking lot)

► Exit is only via the doors at the south end of the hallway (into the large parking lot)

Everyone – priests and penitents – is required to wear face masks or face coverings

► Lines on the floor will indicate a 6-foot social distance between those waiting on line outside each classroom

► Signs on easels outside the classroom will indicate the name of the priest who is in the classroom

► Social distancing and plexiglass dividers will keep a safe distance between priest and penitent, whether the penitent celebrates anonymously or face-to-face (both options are available)

"LET THE CHILDREN COME TO ME" PRAYER GARDEN Engraved Bricks

Memorialize your loved ones or your prayer intention in our "Let the Children Come to Me" Prayer Garden! The memorializations do not have to be only for children, though; the prayer garden is for all prayers, intentions and memorializations for loved ones of any age. Especially in these times when we have all lost loved ones due to Covid, this can be a powerful way to help bring healing and closure. Or, you can offer a prayer intention.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE

During these very difficult times many of us find ourselves in financial difficulty, often for the first time. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is here to help. Please don't feel embarrassed—you are not alone. We want to assure you that all matters relating to SVDP are completely confidential. All volunteer workers in the Food Pantry are Vincentians who are pledged to follow the "Rule" in dealing with our friends and neighbors. We reach out to those who come to us with kindness, sincerity and total confidentiality. You may come to the pantry for food every two weeks. The money that would have been spent on this food can then be used to pay other bills. Please reach out to us by calling our Food Pantry office at 631-226-7725 x. 234. Our regular office hours: Monday, Wednesday and Friday 9:00 a.m.- 12:00 p.m. and 1st and 3rd Saturdays 1:30 - 3:00 p.m. We're here for you.

"The Society of St. Vincent de Paul wishes to send our condolences to the family of Mildred Matera, and thank them for their generous donation to the Society"

PRAYING FOR AND SUPPORTING ONE ANOTHER

FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT COME FORWARD IN PROCESSION TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION

If you are, or if someone you are with is, unable to walk in procession to receive Holy Communion, please alert one of the Ushers before Mass begins. The Usher will be glad to arrange to have one of the ministers bring Holy Communion to the pew. Please remember to inform an Usher before Mass begins; do not wait until the time of Communion. Also, if at all possible, please sit in the front half of the church, to make it easier for the minister to come to you. Thank you.

Reflexión de las Lecturas del domingo de Resurrección 4/4/2021

ALELULLA CRISTO VIVE!!!! La gran noticia de la resurrección de Cristo es el centro de las lecturas de hoy. El triunfo de Jesús sobre la muerte, la gloria de su resurrección, tiene sus testigos, y son los que dan fe ahora, de que Cristo está vivo! Escuchemos atentamente!

Primera Lectura (Hechos 10: 34, 37-42):

Este nuevo discurso de Pedro sigue el esquema del Pentecostés, se inicia con el escándalo de la cruz que fue el suplicio, y demuestra que Dios transforma el mal en bien.

Segunda lectura del apóstol san Pablo a los Colosenses (3,1-4):

Ya que habéis resucitado con Cristo, buscad los bienes de allá arriba, donde está Cristo, sentado a la derecha del Padre; aspirad a los bienes de arriba, no a los de la tierra. Porque habéis muerto al pecado, y vuestra vida está con Cristo escondida en Dios.

Evangelio del año C (Juan 20, 1-9): ¡El Señor Está Vivo y Resucitado!

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección a todos! La Resurrección es la fiesta de la alegría, de la esperanza, la fiesta de la vida. La Resurrección debe calar fuerte en nuestro interior y darnos una actitud de misericordia, de perdón hacia aquellas personas que nos vilipendian, que no respetan nuestra forma de ser o actuar, y no debe resultarnos muy difícil si nos miramos en la figura de Jesús, que en la cruz perdonó a todos los que lo abandonaron, a los que le iban a quitar la vida. Vivimos en un mundo donde la riqueza está en manos de pocas personas, mientras abundan cada vez más pobres y marginados. Un mundo donde muchos quieren aparentar en lugar de ser, donde ansiamos demostrar tener poder, ya sea político o religioso, y si miramos en nuestras comunidades siempre encontraremos personas así. Pero el verdadero cristiano es aquel a quien le importa poco el poder, sólo quiere servir, no desea ser salvador de nada, ni de nadie. Sólo quiere servir y colaborar en que la misericordia, el amor, la justicia divina se abran camino en un mundo cada vez más alejado de Dios.

Por ello, en la Pascua de Resurrección, el perdón y la misericordia tienen un lugar preferente, porque las personas maduras en la fe tienen una verdadera conversión, una verdadera reconciliación con los hermanos. La Pascua es abrir los brazos al hermano, al mundo. Es respetar la vida humana desde el nacimiento hasta su finitud. Es valorar y respetar a las personas, y tener la certeza de que ese es el deseo de Dios: que todos seamos hermanos.

A LETTER FROM BISHOP BARRES

DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Easter 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Lord is truly risen, Alleluia! Around the world and across Long Island, we proclaim this marvelous truth. Good news is ours. Sin and death have been vanquished. Christ has conquered. God is victorious!

In light of the suffering and death of the past year, how blessed we are to behold again the Mystery of the Resurrection. These months have been dark and bleak. They have been long and challenging. Yet, as we encounter Easter 2021, we are reminded that God has the final word. Indeed, Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it (John 1:5). This Light, Jesus Christ, illumines our path. He gives hope. As the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council said:

Through Christ and in Christ, the riddles of sorrow and death grow meaningful. Apart from His Gospel, they overwhelm us. Christ has risen, destroying death by His death; He has lavished life upon us so that...we can cry out in the Spirit: Abba, Father.¹

With significant challenges facing us still on Long Island and across the globe, with darkness still afoot, perhaps the joy of Easter is difficult to embrace. Our hearts maybe like those of the disciples who went on Easter dawn to anoint the Lord's body. At the strange sight of an empty tomb and an apparently absent Jesus, instead of experiencing immediate joy, they were confused and distressed. Only in seeing the Lord face to face did they come to embrace His rising from the dead.

Like Mary Magdalene and the other disciples, we need to see Christ alive among us. We need to see the Resurrection in our midst. So, this Easter, let us ask, "Where is Christ alive?"

Christ is alive in the countless frontline workers, civil servants, and medical professionals who have served so faithfully and so heroically this past year. Their sacrificial love and Good Samaritan-willingness to help neighbors in need radiate the Lord Jesus!

Christ is alive in the catechumens who have received the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Their reception of the Sacraments reminds us of the power of our own Baptism – where each of us has died with Christ and risen with Him to new life.

Above all, Christ is alive in His risen and glorified presence in the Eucharist and in the transforming power of His Body and Blood that we receive in the celebration of the Mass. Christ > is alive, and therefore the Church is alive. The Eucharist is the source of this life – and its power has become perhaps more evident than ever, after months of separation from the weekly and daily celebration of the Mass. Together, we recall the disciples' recognition of Jesus following the Resurrection at Emmaus in the opening of the Scriptures and the breaking of the Bread. We are grateful for the many ways in which our parishes and schools have continued to foster creatively this Emmaus experience on Long Island, both in-person and virtually. May we continue to recognize the Sunday Eucharist as the source from which the life of the Resurrected Christ bursts forth into the world.

> At his Sunday Angelus on January 3, 2021, Pope Francis beautifully reminded us of Christ's continued presence in our midst:

"I like to think that when the Lord prays to the Father for us, he does not merely speak: he shows him the wounds of the flesh, he shows him the wounds he suffered for us. This is Jesus: with his flesh he is the intercessor, he wanted to bear even the signs of suffering. Jesus, with his flesh, is before the Father. Indeed, the Gospel says that He came to dwell among us. He did not come to visit us, and then leave; He came to dwell with us, to stay with us."²

May we continue to encounter the presence of Jesus Christ who dwells in and through His Church. May we continue to experience signs of His Resurrection even amidst the challenges and crosses we embrace, and may this encounter continue to fill our hearts, so that our voices can confidently cry out: The Lord is truly risen! Alleluia!

Faithfully in the Lord,

ost Reverend John O. Barres Bishop of Rockville Centre

John 20:29

PREPARING FOR Sunday, April 11, 2021 SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

(SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

Jesus said to Thomas,

"Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of the early Church, beginning in Jerusalem and ending in Rome. Today's reading describes how the community of believers continued to grow even after Peter and John had been ordered by the Temple leaders not to preach in Jesus' name. What is most important about this community is that they were "of one heart and mind." Because of this, they were able to share what they had and take care of the needy in their midst. This should lead us to reflect on our own parish today. Are we of one heart and mind?

1 John 5:1-6

For John, believing and loving are intimately related. "Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him." To be a believer means to adhere in loving reverence to authentic Christian teaching: "For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments." Belief in Jesus as the Son of God leads to the victory that overcomes the world. What a hopeful message when we feel overcome by the world – the victory is ours in Christ Jesus!

John 20:19-31

Today's Gospel is for all of us who have not seen Jesus but still believe. The first apostles were given the great grace of seeing the risen Jesus face-to-face, of talking and even eating with him. But we, two thousand years removed from these awesome events, are like doubting Thomas at times. We struggle with belief. We have moments of doubt and uncertainty. But day after day, in season and out, we profess with our lips and believe in our hearts that Jesus is our Lord and God. Because of this, Jesus calls us "blessed." What good news!

Readings for the Week Take time each day to read the daily readings of the Church.

Monday, April 5, 2021: Acts 2:14, 22-33 + Matthew 28:8-15

Tuesday, April 6, 2021: Acts 2:36-41 + John 20:11-18

Gospel Reflection Rising to New Life

"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad." Easter is the great celebration of victory of life over death.

Ours is an Easter religion. We do not deny or turn away from the evils that surround us: the wars that have killed some 100 million people in our (last) century; the poverty that grips more than half of the human race; the hunger that kills millions every year and ruins the lives of millions more; the discrimination that divides the human family into contending parties.

We do not deny these miseries, but we refuse to surrender to their power because of our faith in the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Suffering will be vindicated; death will be overcome; a new life will arise: that is the Easter message of the paschal mystery.

"Let us feast with joy in the Lord." Just as Christ passed through death to resurrection, so too will the world pass through its suffering to the glory of a new life.

There is no room for despair: our Easter faith tells us that God will "raise us up and renew our lives." This is the 'day which the Lord has made.' Alleluia! Take fresh hope, brothers and sisters of the whole world! With Christ our Passover everything is possible! Christ goes forward in our future!
