Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. In liturgical circles today's celebration is sometimes referred to as an "idea feast," because it focuses on a particular doctrine of our faith (an idea or concept) rather than on a specific moment or occurrence in the life of Christ, the Blessed Mother, or one of the saints. This Solemnity allows us to focus on one of the core beliefs of Christianity, namely, the Most Holy Trinity — that God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Think of how often we say the words, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Don't let the frequency with which we say those words minimize the powerful mystery they express!

The Mass prayers for this Solemnity give us deeper insight into the mystery. The Collect (Opening Prayer) expresses the meaning of the mystery not in terms of some dry theological doctrine, but rather in terms of the active, dynamic power of the triune God: the Father sends into the world the Word of truth (the Son) and the Spirit of sanctification and, in so doing, reveals to the human race His own "wondrous mystery." The prayer affirms that through the Trinity we know the very life of God Himself.

The Prayer over the Offerings makes the important liturgical point that as we make the offering of our lives at this liturgy — "this oblation of our service" — its ultimate purpose is that by it we might be made "an eternal offering" to the Father. The prayer expresses how in the liturgy we are swept up into the life of the Trinity so that our entire life might be lived with the same self-emptying, self-giving love as exists between the divine Persons. (Think of one of the dismissals used at the end of Mass: "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.") Every celebration of liturgy is an immersion in the very life of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

The Preface (the section of the Eucharistic Prayer before the "Holy, Holy") emphasizes the theological truth of God being "one God, one Lord, not in the unity of a single person, but in a Trinity of one substance." It also emphasizes how each Person of the Trinity is equal in majesty. Finally, the Prayer after Communion also gives voice to the basic statement about the Trinity being "undivided Unity," a truth echoed in a well-known hymn.

Of course, we can never fully comprehend every last aspect of the doctrine of the Most Holy Trinity, but our Mass prayers can help us to understand it perhaps just a little bit better.

Memorial Day

This Monday we celebrate Memorial Day, our civil holiday for remembering all the brave men and women who have died while serving our country in the Armed Forces. Let's all be sure to take a few moments of prayer and remembrance for those who have made the ultimate offering of themselves in order to preserve our freedoms and defend our country. Even though Memorial Day is focused on remembering those who have died, I think we should also take the occasion to thank and affirm all those who serve us in any of the Armed Forces; remember to thank them for their service and pray for them, too.

Memorial Day is, of course, also the unofficial start of the "summer season," and it's good that we celebrate with gatherings of family and friends, BBQ's and other festivities. I have a feeling that the gatherings will be especially festive this year, as we celebrate "opening up" and returning to normal activities more and more after the COVID shutdowns and limitations. Let's not forget, however, the real reason behind it all, as I described above.

Father's Day Novena of Masses

Cards and envelopes for our Novena of Masses for Father's Day are available on the pew ledges throughout the church. The Father's Day Novena of Masses is a beautiful way to remember and pray for your father, living or deceased. Give that special father, grandfather, godfather or father-to-be the special gift of prayer by participating in this Novena. Be sure to join in this spiritual remembrance so that your intention will be remembered in the Father's Day Novena of Masses.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ next weekend

Next weekend is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and elsewhere in the bulletin can be found some details about how we are marking the day.

Usually we mark the day with a Eucharistic Procession, but we're not doing a Procession this year, as a nod to continuing to be extra safe as we move out of the pandemic. We are, however, offering, as the conclusion to every Mass on Sunday, a period of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, which will include time for silent private prayer, a reflective reading, and singing. The Exposition will end with Benediction. So, make it a point to celebrate the day by participating in the Mass and especially in the Exposition which will follow.

elsewhere in this bulletin. There's a deadline of August 1, and it will be here before you know it, so don't miss out! This is a great way to offer your congratulations to our parish on this milestone, or to advertise your business, or to honor someone you wish to put in the spotlight! The Commemorative Journal is an important fund raiser and a big part of our Anniversary Year celebration.

Super 72 Raffle

June (which starts on Tuesday) is the start of the next SUPER 72 RAFFLE, but there's still enough time for you to get your tickets in if you have not already done so. Join in this fun and important fund raiser for the parish. Good luck!

Anniversary Year Commemorative Items for sale

Here's one more commercial about the Anniversary Year: Make sure to purchase some 150th Anniversary Year Commemorative items; see the order form in this bulletin, or use the special link on the homepage of our website www.olphindenhurst.com to order online. Your purchase of these items is a great support to the parish. Tell your family and friends about this and let them get in on it, too! (Hint: They make great Father's Day gifts!)

Brick Memorialization in the "Let the Children Come to Me" Prayer Garden

Brick memorializations in our beautiful "Let the Children Come to Me" Prayer Garden on the south side of the church are still available. Remember, the memorializations are to remember any person, living or deceased, or any prayer intention in general, and not just ones dealing with children. Thanks to all who have taken one or more bricks!

In conclusion...

Together, let's aim high in Christ. Together, let's bring out the best in each other. Together, let's be the best we can be in Christ.

And let's always remember: LOVE IS A GIFT.

Sincerely,

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

RESPECT LIFE

Save a life. Contact Congress.

WHAT

Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion.

HOW

The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, powerful members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century.

WHAT HAPPENS WITHOUT THESE PROTECTIONS?

Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion.

Reflexión de las lecturas del domingo 30 de mayo del 2021

Que la Santísima Trinidad nos revele su misterio en esta Santa Eucaristía a través del Espíritu Santo.

Primera lectura (Deuteronomio 4:32-34, 39-40)

Moisés nos recuerda a todos que DIOS es quien amo a nuestros padres y los eligió. No hay otro DIOS arriba en los cielos o debajo de la tierra, aparte de él. Moisés nos exhorta obedecer para que nuestros días en esta tierra que DIOS nos dio sean multiplicados.

Segunda lectura (Romanos 8: 14-17)

Hermanos y hermanas los que se dejan dirigir por el Espíritu Santo son verdaderos hijos de Dios porque son llevados por la influencia divina a apartarse de la corrupción de nuestras propias pasiones y vanidades de este mundo. Si somos guiados por el espíritu Santo alcanzaremos por el camino recto la santidad.

Evangelio según (San Mateo 28: 16-20) "Id pues haced discípulos a todas las gentes dice Jesús a los once.

Terminada su misión. Los que lo han acogido comienzan su camino. Es su mismo hijo que da testimonio del amor del padre a los hermanos que a un no lo conocen. Lo que el nazareno ha ofrecido a Israel, los nazarenos lo ofrecen a todos los pueblos. El que en Él ha descubierto el propio nombre de hijo, lo realiza como el, yendo hacia los hermanos hasta que el nombre del padre sea santificado en toda la tierra.

Un solo Dios en tres Personas: El Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo.

La Iglesia dedica el siguiente domingo después de Pentecostés a la celebración del día de la Santísima Trinidad Un misterio es todo aquello que no podemos entender con la razón. Es algo que sólo podemos comprender cuando Dios nos lo revela.

El misterio de la Santísima Trinidad

Un sólo Dios en tres Personas distintas, es el misterio central de la fe y de la vida cristiana, pues es el misterio de Dios en Sí mismo.

Aunque es un dogma difícil de entender, fue el primero que entendieron los Apóstoles. Después de la Resurrección, comprendieron que Jesús era el Salvador enviado por el Padre. Y, cuando experimentaron la acción del Espíritu Santo dentro de sus corazones en Pentecostés, comprendieron que el único Dios era Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo.

Los católicos creemos que la Trinidad es Una. No creemos en tres dioses, sino en un sólo Dios en tres Personas distintas. No es que Dios esté dividido en tres, pues cada una de las tres Personas es enteramente Dios.

Santísima Trinidad

PREPARING FOR
Sunday, June 6, 2021
THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body."

Mark 14:22

Exodus 24:3-8

We hear in today's readings of covenants (sacred agreements) with God sealed in blood. Blood is a symbol of life and using it is a measure of how seriously these agreements should be taken. In this Old Testament reading it is the blood of animals. Moses presents God's words and ordinances to the people of Israel and they agree to keep them and do everything God has told them. As a sign of this agreement, Moses sacrifices young bulls and sprinkles their blood on the altar (representing the presence of God) and the people. Later we hear how Jesus' blood brings about a new covenant between us and God.

Hebrews 9:11-15

Now our attention shifts to a heavenly sanctuary where Christ is the high priest. He offers a more perfect sacrifice than that of animals, the sacrifice of his very self on the Cross for our redemption. It is his blood that cleanses us so we can obtain "eternal redemption" and "worship the living God," freeing us from "dead works" and our own sin.

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

From Mark's account of the Last Supper, we hear today Jesus consecrate the first Eucharist. He says the words we hear at each and every Mass as the priest stands in Jesus' place to say "This is my body... this is my blood." By doing this, Jesus gives us a new covenant, like the one that Moses brought to the people of Israel, but of far greater value and permanence as it is sealed in Jesus' death and resurrection on the Cross. Although we were starving in our sin, Jesus came to be one of us and nourish us back to health and strength. Although we were thirsty in our disobedience, Jesus poured out his blood to quench our thirst. We hunger and thirst for joy and meaning our lives and for belonging every day. And every day Jesus gives us his body and blood as food and drink to connect us to the Father and brings us peace and everlasting life. Good news indeed!

Gospel Reflection

After reading next Sunday's readings take some time to pray on them before you come to Mass. Use the questions below to aid your reflection.

1. Can you say in your own words what happens in the Eucharist to our poverty, according to Pope Francis?

"... And in the Eucharist, the Lord makes us travel his path, that of service, of sharing, of gift, and what little we have, what little we are, if shared, becomes wealth, because the power of God, which is that of love, descends into our poverty to transform it.

So let us ask ourselves, in adoring Christ who is really present in the Eucharist: do I let the Lord who gives himself to me, guide me to going out ever more from behind my little enclosure, in order to give, to share, to love him and others?"

Holy Mass on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi May 31, 2013

2. Surely the disciples hadn't understood what Jesus was doing at the Last Supper, but they trusted him absolutely. Where do you go when you need help with trust? Friends? A Priest? Books? To the Holy Spirit?

Monday is Memorial Day and we would like to recognize and show our appreciation to all who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country and the freedoms we enjoy.

We would like to ask you to take a moment tomorrow to pray for those that have served and are serving our nation. Many families have lost loved ones, and our military men and women that have survived will face countless struggles and challenges for the rest of their lives.

On Monday when we honor and celebrate their service and sacrifice, let us also remember the once homeless veterans, who because of your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal, have been helped through our ministries and programs like Catholic Charities Project Veterans' Independence.

Thank you for your support! You make a difference in the lives of so many through your prayers and generosity!

To make a donation, you can also visit <https://www.drvc.org/CMA/> or call us at 516-678-5800 ext. 296. Thank You!
