Saturdays

"The Liturgy of the Hours is intended to become the prayer of the whole People of God. In it Christ himself 'continues his priestly work through his Church....Pastors of souls should see to it that the principal hours, especially Vespers (Evening Prayer) are celebrated in common in church on Sundays and on the more solemn feasts.'"

-Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1175

Take some time each Monday to join in the OLPH Novena.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

BRINGING FORWARD THE OFFERINGS OF BREAD AND WINE

If the announced intention at Mass is for your intention, or if you have memorialized the bread and wine, and you would like to carry those offerings forward at the Presentation of the Gifts during Mass, please be sure to let the ushers know this before the Mass begins. They will be happy to have you do this. If no one steps forward to specifically request this, then they will select people from the assembly.

FOR THOSE WHO CANNOT COME FORWARD IN PROCESSION TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION

If you are, or if someone you are with is, unable to walk in procession to receive Holy Communion, please alert one of the Ushers before Mass begins. The Usher will be glad to arrange to have one of the ministers bring Holy Communion to the pew. Please remember to inform an Usher before Mass begins; do not wait until the time of Communion. Also, if at all possible, please sit in the front half of the church, to make it easier for the minister to come to you. Thank you.

The Way You Are Dressed DOES Matter!

Please dress appropriately for Mass during the summer months. Attire that is meant for the beach, barbecues, boat or athletic field is inappropriate for Mass and is disrespectful to the Lord as we offer ourselves to Him through the sacred actions in which we are engaged. It is also disrespectful to one's brothers and sisters in the community. Your cooperation in continuing to dress up and dress appropriately for Mass during the summer weather is appreciated.

REMINDER REGARDING THE COMMUNION FAST

Please remember that we are supposed to observe a Communion Fast before receiving Holy Communion. This means we do not eat any foods or drink any liquids for one hour before receiving Holy Communion, the only exception being water or medicine. This also means that we are not to chew gum during Mass, and certainly not while we are coming forward to receive Holy Communion. Let's be sure we are appropriately prepared to receive Holy Communion by observing this important rule of the Church.

GLUTEN-FREE HOSTS

Gluten-free hosts are available for those with Celiac Disease who cannot receive Holy Communion using the usual bread. If you need to receive Holy Communion using a gluten-free host, please stop in the sacristy before Mass to discuss this with the priest. We will be happy to accommodate you.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable about the rich man who selfishly stored all his grain and goods, only to die and not enjoy his abundance anyway. What we struggle all our lives to learn is that life does not consist of possessions nor our perceived security, but of being possessed by God.

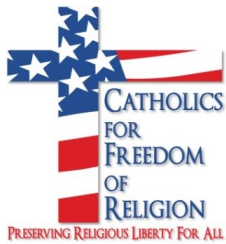

This week, as you give your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are realizing that in giving you indeed receive.

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!

TO OUR ANONYMOUS SUPPORTERS WHO LEAVE FOOD ON THE SANCTUARY STEPS AND MONEY IN THE POOR BOXES...THANK YOU!

....when you give to the poor, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing (Matthew 6:3). This teaching of Jesus is lived and practiced by so many of our fellow parishioners at OLPH. We are blessed by secret benefactors who anonymously make regular donations of food and other necessities, leaving them on the steps of the sanctuary, or dropping off at the Pantry during office hours. Also, take a look in the Sunday Bulletin weekly collection breakdown. The contributions put into the Poor Boxes as you leave church add up and are the major source of our funding. You know who you are, but we're not sure that you realize how much your quiet acts of charity mean to the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at OLPH, and to those whom we strive to serve. Thank you and may God bless you!!!

“Equality Act” Grants Special Rights to Some, Denies Rights to Most

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light and light for darkness.

Isaiah 5:20

The misnamed “Equality Act of 2019,” passed by the House of Representatives on May 17, is considered an assault on religious freedom, individual conscience and free speech by leaders of all faiths who hold traditional beliefs about the distinction between sexes — that sex is determined at conception — and about marriage. “Persons and groups holding [these] traditional beliefs...would be marked as bigots and exposed to legal action,” wrote L. Grayson, National Catholic Register.

“The bill, if enacted, would make sexual orientation and gender identity equivalent to existing protections for race, color, national origin, sex, disability and religion under the 1964 Civil rights Act, while negating the free-exercise protections of the First Amendment... This proposed bill would affect virtually every aspect of American society.”

“Rather than offering meaningful protections for individuals, the Equality Act would impose sweeping new norms that negatively impact the unborn, health care, charitable services, schools, personal privacy, athletics, free speech, religious liberties, and parental rights,” said the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Archbishop Kurtz & his fellow bishops sent a letter to the House citing more ill effects of this Act:

- Houses of worship and other religious spaces will be turned into places of “public accommodation.”
- Many privately funded shelters for the homeless and victims of domestic violence would be rendered illegal, ripping a hole in the social safety net.
- Core rights would be stripped from religious colleges and universities.
- Houses of worship, religious charities, and religious individuals will lose the protection of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA).
- Religious individuals would be forced to take part in weddings and funerals that violate their religious beliefs. (ncregister.com, 6/18/19; osvnews.com, 5/20/19; usccb.org, 5/19/19)

Lecturas del Domingo 19° del Tiempo Ordinario - Ciclo C

Domingo 11 de Agosto del 2019

Esta celebración por lo tanto, es la oportunidad para reavivar las actitudes de vigilancia, esperanza y compromiso transformador de este mundo que debe ser muy constante en nuestra vida de cristianos.

Primera Lectura (Sabiduría 18,6-9): Confía en las Promesas de Dios.

Cuando el pueblo de Dios tenía que pasar por pruebas y dificultades, recordaba siempre la noche de la primera Pascua, cuando Dios los liberó de la esclavitud de Egipto.

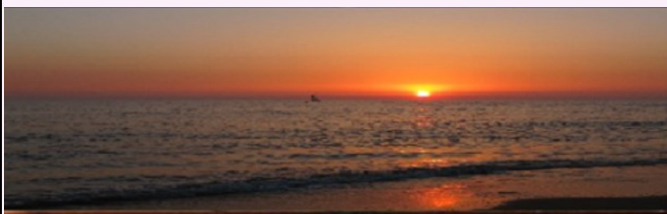

Segunda Lectura (hebreos 11,1-2.8-19): Abrahán, Padre de la Fe

Abrahán se convirtió en peregrino de la fe, porque confió en las promesas de Dios. Él es nuestro modelo, aun cuando -como él- no veamos a dónde nos lleva Dios.

Evangelio (Lucas 12,32-48): Preparados para la Venida del Señor.

Nuestra fe debería ser tan firme que nos hiciera confiar en la palabra de Jesús y estar dispuestos a encontrarnos con en cualquier momento.

El Evangelio (Lc 12:32-48) relata que yendo hacia Jerusalén, Jesús va formando a sus discípulos, a quienes les dice: “No temas, pequeño rebaño, porque a vuestro Padre le ha parecido bien daros a vosotros el Reino. Vended vuestros bienes y dad limosna. Hacedos en bolsas que no se deterioran, un tesoro inagotable en los cielos, donde no llega el ladrón, ni la polilla; porque donde esté vuestro tesoro, allí estará también vuestro corazón.” Comienza Jesús exponiendo que no existe motivo alguno para tener miedo, porque a Dios le ha parecido bien brindar su Reino a la humanidad y por eso, ante las persecuciones y las oposiciones del mundo al Evangelio, en especial que no se crea ni se piense que la Vida Eterna es lo más importante para el futuro de la persona, el cristiano no puede perder de vista que el horizonte para el cual fue creado, es volver ante Dios para estar en permanente presencia de su Creador; esto es, la Vida después de la peregrinación por esta tierra, es verdadera, real, no todo termina con esta vida terrena. De ahí, que el llamado de Jesús a comprender que no existe mayor riqueza para el ser humano que el poseer en la vida a Dios, supremo y único Bien, pues como dice santa Teresa de Ávila: ¡Sólo Dios basta! Continúa Jesús: “Estén ceñidos vuestros lomos y las lámparas encendidas, y sed como hombres que esperan a que su señor vuelva de la boda, para que, en cuanto llegue y llame, al instante le abran. Dichosos los siervos, que el señor al venir encuentre despiertos: yo os aseguro que se ceñirá, los hará ponerse a la mesa y, yendo de uno a otro, les servirá. Que venga en la segunda vigilia o en la tercera, si los encuentra así, ¡dichosos de ellos! Entendedlo bien: si el dueño de casa supiese a qué hora iba a venir el ladrón, no dejaría que le horadasen su casa. También vosotros estad preparados, porque en el momento que no penséis, vendrá el Hijo del hombre.” Y es que el empeño en hacer de la mejor manera lo cotidiano debe dar su fruto, de ahí que Jesús invite a ponerse a la tarea, de no caer en la mediocridad, pues el cristiano debe perseverar en la vigilancia permanente, toda vez que la correcta conducta moral es la condición de vida cristiana, una vez revestido de Cristo y dedicado a su Reino, esto es, estar en unión con Dios, más aún con la claridad que el encuentro con Dios será maravilloso y por eso no deba perderse tiempo ni dinero en proveer el futuro, pues el cristiano ha de confiar plenamente en Jesús

Pero nos Ama con amor eterno

PREPARING FORSunday, August 11, 2019*NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to his disciples, "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom."

Luke 12:32

Wisdom 18:6-9

For centuries Israelites suffered as slaves in Egypt. All the while, they clung to the promises or "oaths" God made to their ancestors. Despite the passage of so much time and despite their desperate circumstances the people put their faith in God believing he would be faithful and not disappoint them. God was faithful to his promises. He sent them Moses who led them out of Egypt after the night of the Passover when the Egyptians were punished and the "holy children of the good" were saved.

Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

The author of the letter to the Hebrews speaks of faith that stands firm despite many trials, including the trial we endure when God seems to be silent. Abraham and the other heroes mentioned later in this chapter clung to faith over decades and generations; they left their homeland and dwelled in tents in foreign lands, hung onto promises of numerous descendants, and even died without seeing the complete fulfillment of God's promises. Faith enabled them to see with their mind's eye and with their hearts what God had promised but had not yet come to be. "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." In that, they model to us what is necessary in the life of every believer.

Luke 12:32-48

In this reading, Jesus gives us multiple examples of the difference between prepared, faithful servants and self-serving, unfaithful servants in order to teach us about preparedness. One important strategy he teaches us for being prepared is "Do not be afraid," which is Scripture's most commonly repeated phrase. If we are not concerned with losing our possessions here on earth we can store up treasures for ourselves in heaven. "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." This is an invitation from Jesus to have faith in him alone, that is, to make his Gospel our only treasure so that our hearts will always be with his.

+ Luke 12:32-48Gospel Reflection Questions....

After reading next Sunday's readings and Gospel, take some time to pray on them before you come to Mass. Use the questions below to aid your reflection.

1. In the Gospel, Jesus says to "be like servants who await their master's return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks." The servants are watching for the master. Do you "watch" for God in your everyday life? Where do you find him?

2. When you look for what Jesus calls the "inexhaustible treasure," he suggests: "Sell your belongings and give alms ... for where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Pope Francis, speaking to the youth in the Philippines, tells them to "become beggars," so they might learn to receive. If they (we) are evangelized by the poor, what "inexhaustible treasure" will we receive from them?

"You still lack one thing. Become a beggar. This is what you still lack. Learn how to beg. This isn't easy to understand. To learn how to beg. To learn how to receive with humility. To learn to be evangelized by the poor, by those we help, the sick, orphans, they have so much to give us. Have I learned how to beg? Or am I self-sufficient? Do I think I need nothing? Do you know you too are poor? Do you know your own poverty and your need to receive? Do you let yourselves be evangelized by those you serve? This is what helps you mature in your commitment to give to others. Learn how to open your hand from your very own poverty."

(Moved by young Filipinos who read their messages and told their stories, Pope Francis discarded his prepared message and did impromptu remarks in Spanish translated by Msgr. Mark Miles in English.)
