STEP 2: AT 7:00PM
ENJOY THE PERFORMANCE!

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Music
Ministry Presents
A Summer Musical Experience For Children and Teens

The Lost Boy tells the story of Luke 2:39-52. Mary and Joseph lose track of twelve-year-old Jesus for three days, and when they finally find him, he is sitting in his "Father's house" demonstrating with his questions a great understanding of God. Within the musical is a reassuringly human message: even parents chosen by God can lose a child; even a perfect child can give his parents anxiety. The message is sure to comfort anyone who has ever been a parent, a child, or even those who have misplaced Jesus for a while.

STEP 3: AT 7:30PM
JOIN US FOR DESSERT!

Can you bring a delicious homemade dessert for after the Musical Event? If so, contact Jean Bjork at (631) 334-6191 or e-mail jean.bjork@gmail.com

FROM THE PASTORAL COUNCIL

Hi! My name is St. Francis de Sales, and I'm the patron saint of writers. That's why your Pastoral Council has picked me as their patron and intercessor in this column which they offer to you. Here we will grow in our appreciation of the Catholic faith through questions and answers. So, I encourage all of you to send me your questions about Catholicism. All questions are welcomed and all will remain just between you and me (we won't print your name in the bulletin). Please e-mail pastoralcouncil@oloph.org and each time this column appears, a new question will be answered. So, let's get started! I'll pray for you what I pray for everyone: May the Lord grant you His peace!

“Humility is nothing but truth, and pride is nothing but lying” – St. Vincent de Paul Question 5: Is going to a psychic a bad thing, even if it's just for fun?

A while back, a friend asked me what I thought about his wife going to see the so-called Long Island Psychic. I first thought of what God said in the book of Deuteronomy (18:10-12): “Let there not be found among you anyone who . . . consults ghosts and spirits, or seeks oracles from the dead. Anyone who does such things is an abomination to the Lord.” Is it really that bad? Well, our faith teaches us it's not a good thing to do.

First, we have to realize that the Devil is a real created being, not a psychological invention of primitive peoples who didn't know better. He is an angel whom Jesus saw fall from the sky (Lk 10:18) because of his pride in wanting to be like God. Anything we do that might open ourselves up to the influence of Satan and evil spirits is far from harmless entertainment. This can include things like playing with Ouija boards, participating in séances, and going to psychics. A psychic may tell us that our grandfather has a message for us and reveal specific details only our grandfather would know. Now, a fake psychic may have gotten this information from us by asking leading questions, but what about others? They may be real all right but how do we know that they're actually talking to our grandfather? One tell-tale sign is that “messages” from the dead rarely give glory to God and praise Jesus. If we were really hearing from our grandfather in heaven, don't we think he would have tons to say about how great Jesus is?

Second, aside from the real and present danger of opening the door to evil spirits, there's the question of why we would want to do this in the first place. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 2116) tells us that even seemingly harmless things like horoscopes and astrology conceal an unholy desire for power over our future by trying to possess knowledge that God has clearly reserved for its proper time. Why do we want to know what the future is — don't we trust God enough to rely on him? Do we want to commit Satan's sin by trying to be like God by any means possible? Doing these things contradicts the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone. We are not the masters of our fate, as the world tells us; God is. We should put ourselves and our trust confidently into the hands of God. Why walk in twilight when we have Christ our Light? If we want to talk to someone “on the other side,” we should talk to Jesus — that's what prayer is!

We should always make sure we are giving all due honor and glory to God and to God alone. To read more about this, read articles 2110-2117 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

OFFERER APPRECIATION

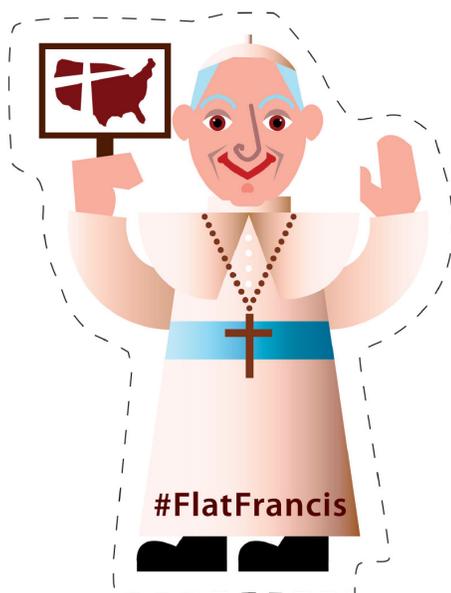

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE APPRECIATION PARTY

To all who offer their time and talent at OLPH: Keep open Friday night, October 9, 6:00-10:00 p.m. That's the date and time of our OFFERER APPRECIATION PARTY, our parish THANK-YOU CELEBRATION to all who share their gifts by participating in the various ministries and programs here at OLPH. We want you there to share the fun (remember the last one we had??!!). More details to follow!

FAMILY LIFE

TAKE A PICTURE WITH FLAT FRANCIS

Our Family Life Ministry is inviting everyone in the parish to get ready for Pope Francis' visit by giving him a big OLPH welcome! How? By using Flat Francis!

You can download Flat Francis by going to www.olphlindenhurst.org.

Then we want all to take pictures of themselves with Flat Francis. We want to see selfies, family pictures, group shots, youth meetings, ministry meetings, music camp, Evening Prayer, choirs and service projects. Send those pictures to familylife@oloph.org.

Then in September, we'll gather after the 9:30 A.M. Mass for a video montage of all of the pictures and a brief overview of why Pope Francis's visit to the church is so important.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

The Way You Are Dressed DOES Matter!

Please dress appropriately for Mass during the summer months. Attire that is meant for the beach, barbecues, boat or athletic field is inappropriate for Mass and is disrespectful to the Lord as we offer ourselves to Him through the sacred actions in which we are engaged.

It is also disrespectful to one's brothers and sisters in the community. Your cooperation in continuing to dress up and dress appropriately for Mass during the summer weather is appreciated.

Making our Church Beautiful for God!

Do you like to watch Home and Garden TV? Do you like to arrange and design plants and flowers? Does your house look like a florist? IF so, we may have the ministry for you!

Doesn't our Church look wonderful? It often looks like the "place to be" because of the dedicated parishioners who care for the plants and flowers each week.

Can you spare some time on a Friday afternoon? Do you like to water, straighten up, clean up, and make our church even more beautiful?

THIS IS A GREAT WAY TO DO IT!

This is a great opportunity for retired parishioners and stay-at-home moms and dads (the kids can help too!)

Interested? Please contact Rosaleen Walters at 631.226.3575 for more information.

HOLY HOUR FOR PEACE

In response to Bishop Murphy's call for parishes to urgently pray for peace because of all the unrest in the world, please join us for a special Holy Hour devoted to praying for world peace within our own country and throughout the world. This Holy Hour for Peace, with prayers focusing on the intention of peace, will be held on the second, third and fourth Sunday evenings of the month from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm. The Holy Hour of Reparation which has been held on the first Sunday of the month will continue every first Sunday evening as usual, with the prayers that are usually said for that first Sunday Holy Hour.

Prayer for Peace

Following Bishop Murphy's request, we are asked to pray this prayer privately, and we are encouraged to use this prayer as a part of all meetings and gatherings held here at OLPH.

*Lord Jesus Christ,
who are called the Prince of Peace,
Who are yourself our peace
and our reconciliation,
Who so often said 'Peace to you',
Grant us peace!*

Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice and brotherly love.

Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.

Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.

May all peoples of the earth become as brothers and sisters.

May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all. AMEN

Mary, Queen of Peace, Pray for us!

Faith: the Next Generation – Pass It On!

Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! This fall, over 1150 children and young people, Levels 1 through 8, will sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. At this time, over 120 of these children and young people have no catechist to teach them. You can help by becoming a catechist for Faith Formation. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "Children are like wet cement, whatever falls on them makes an impression." We provide you with training, materials, and support. If interested or for more information, contact ReligiousEd@oloph.org or call (631) 226-7725.

MSGR. JOE AND FATHER JOHN

YOU MADE A DIFFERENCE!

Father Ignace Loleke and I can't thank you all enough for your time and efforts in making this season's collection a huge success. The soccer shoes and soccer balls we have received are now being cleaned, sorted and packed.

The children in Father's hometown of the Democratic Republic of the Congo will be so excited to receive them.

If it were not for your generosity, these children would never have the opportunity to ever play soccer with shoes on their feet or touch a game soccer ball.

With sincere thanks, Maria

CATHOLICS FOR FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Freedom of Conscience" definition: The right to follow one's own beliefs in matters of religion and morality.

Oxford Dictionary

Atlanta Fire Chief Fired:

Fire Chief Kevin Cochran lost his job because, on his own time, he self-published a men's devotional book that briefly mentions the biblical view of sex as reserved for marriage between one man and one woman. Cochran was ordered to complete "sensitivity training" after complaints from activists who objected to his Christian views. An investigation concluded that Cochran did not discriminate against anyone but the mayor fired him anyway.

"Your action against Chief Cochran appears to violate fundamental principles of free speech and religious freedom. The only way Chief Cochran could avoid his views would be to disown his religion..." said Georgia's congressional delegation. Chief Cochran is appealing his termination. (ADF.org, 4/9/15; washingtonpost.com, 2/8/15)

Supreme Court Victory:

A small church in Gilbert, AZ, uses signs to invite & direct the community to its services but was restricted to small, 6 sq. ft. 14-hour display temporary signs while home association 80 sq. ft., political 32 sq. ft., and ideological 20 sq. ft. signs are permitted for display indefinitely.

In a unanimous decision, the U.S. Supreme Court decisively affirmed that the government cannot play favorites when it comes to free speech. "The government (ordinance) cannot target one form of speech with severe restrictions while allowing more speech for others in similar circumstances," said Alliance Defending Freedom Senior Counsel, Jeremy Tedesco. (adfmedia.org, 6/18/15)

Lecturas del domingo 23 de Agosto del 2015

Cristo amó a su Iglesia;
Se entregó a sí mismo por ella
para hacerla santa y sin mancha;
I nos alimenta, y cuida de nosotros.
Que su amor y su paz estén siempre con ustedes.

Primera Lectura (Josué 24:1-2ª, 15-17, 18b): El Pueblo de Dios escoge al Señor.

El pueblo de Dios es consciente de que debe su libertad y su país, la Tierra Prometida, al amor liberador de Dios. Los hebreos deciden ligar su destino al de Dios y servirle fielmente.

Segunda Lectura (Efesios 5:21-32): La Alianza Matrimonial

En el matrimonio, los cónyuges se eligen el uno al otro para un amor y fidelidad de por vida, y se entregan mutuamente como Cristo se entregó a sí mismo a la Iglesia.

Evangelio (Juan 6:60-69):

Jesús habla de sí como el pan bajado del cielo: comer su carne y beber su sangre nos hace vivir de su amor por el Padre y los hermanos. Jesús nos enfrenta hoy al igual que a los apóstoles con las inquietantes preguntas con la necesidad de una opción radical. Muchos le abandonan. Pedro, hablando aparentemente en nombre de todos los apóstoles, expresa su fe firme en el Señor.

Desde que recibimos el bautismo pertenecemos a Cristo, como a nuestro Señor y Salvador, también como nuestro hermano. ¿Hemos experimentado alguna vez nuestra elección bautismal como una opción consciente y personal por Cristo? Nuestra presencia aquí en la eucaristía implica que sí la hemos experimentado así. ¿Confirmamos y reafirmamos esa opción personal por Cristo en nuestro vivir cristiano de cada día, en nuestras relaciones de amor, justicia y perdón con todos los que nos rodean? Cuando nuestra fe entra en crisis, ¿renovamos conscientemente nuestra opción y decimos: “Señor, ¿a quién acudiremos? Tú eres el Señor de mi vida.

PREPARING FOR
August 23, 2015
21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life."

John 6:68

Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

The Book of Joshua presents a narrative of the way the Israelite people took possession of the land of Canaan, making it the land of Israel. Here, Joshua, the successor of Moses, in his farewell speech to the people before his death, reminds them of their solemn covenant with God, that everything they have has been given to them by the Lord and must not be taken for granted. Serving the Lord as the one true and living God means making an absolute, resolute, and exclusionary choice. The many clans gathered together into the one people Israel are recognized and each given their own land in which to live and to flourish. But there can be no place for their ancient family idols. All must now worship the God of Israel and no other.

Ephesians 5:2a, 25-32 or 5:21-32

What does it mean for a Christian to be subordinate to another? If we each out of love for the Lord serve one another and regard others as more important than ourselves, then there should be no fear that one will dominate or take advantage of the other. Rather, then there will be only mutual self-giving. This is the love to be realized in this life in marriage, in the two becoming one flesh. This is the love to be realized now and throughout eternity in the union of Christ and His Bride, the Church.

John 6:60-69

Jesus' teaching that He is the living bread come down from heaven, and that we need to consume His body and blood in order to have eternal life, proved to be the great test of true discipleship. Those that continued to follow Jesus from this point on did not do so because they understood this teaching. Rather, they resolved to continue to place their faith in Him even though they did not understand.

Gospel Reflection

Questions....

After reading next Sunday's readings and Gospel, take some time to pray on them before you come to Mass. Use the questions below to aid your reflection.

1. Jesus asks, "Do you also want to leave?" If you were there at the time would you be one of the many disciples who returned to his/her former way of life or one that stayed with Jesus? Is there any middle ground here?

2. According to Pope Francis how do we become inserted into Christ's immense work of salvation? When and how does Christ sharpen our spiritual vision with his love?

"Lord, to whom shall we go?" We too, who belong to the Church today, pose this question. Even if it is more hesitant on our lips than on Peter's, our answer, like that of the Apostle, can only be the person of Jesus. Yes, he lived 2000 years ago. But we can encounter him in our own time when we listen to his Word and are near to him in a special way in the Eucharist. ... May the Holy Mass never become a superficial routine for us! May we draw more and more from its profundity! It is precisely the Mass that inserts us in Christ's immense work of salvation, to sharpen our spiritual vision by his love: by his "prophecy in act" with which, at the Last Supper, he initiated the gift of self on the cross; by his irrevocable victory over sin and death, which we boldly and festively proclaim. "We need to learn how to live the Holy Mass."
