

PRAYING FOR AND SUPPORTING ONE ANOTHER

WE REMEMBER

We remember those who have died in our parish community this week:

Ralph Carlino
William G. Roberts
John H. Sagesser

"O God, who through the ending of present things open up the beginning of things to come, grant, we pray, that the soul of your servant may be led to you to attain the inheritance of eternal redemption."

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Those who are seriously ill or facing surgery, as well as those in danger of death, should receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Please call the Parish Office and ask for one of our priests.

If you or a family member are ill and wish to receive Holy Communion, please contact the parish office. One of our parish priests will come visit you and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will then visit each week.

We pray for the sick and the homebound of our parish at each and every Mass.

COMMUNITY OF PRAISE

The Community of Praise is a welcoming group of parishioners committed to living in the Holy Spirit. We meet each week to praise God in song, pray with each other, study Scriptures, and support each other on our journey of faith. We support the parish by our prayers, by joining with other parish groups for special projects, and by offering the Life in the Spirit Seminar.

All are welcome to come and pray and praise with us, just once every week. We meet in Room 16 of the school every Tuesday night from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m.

WE BELIEVE

If a family member or close friend is ill, please let us know so our community can pray for them. To have your name or the name of a loved one listed in our parish bulletin, please call the Parish Office.

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS!

Did you know that the OLPH bulletin is printed free of charge each week? Not only that, our parish receives a part of the advertising commission. So please frequent the fine establishments that advertise in our bulletin!

If your business could use a shot in the arm, consider advertising in the bulletin. Each week, nearly two thousand people attend Mass at OLPH, most of whom live and shop in the Lindenhurst area, receive or view our bulletin online. It's an easy way to reach thousands of area families with information about your business.

For more information on how to advertise in our bulletin, call The Church Bulletin Company at 631.249.4994.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Baptism ceremonies are held on the second and fourth Sundays of the month. Parents wishing to have a child baptized must attend a baptism preparation session before the baptism; these sessions are held on the first and third Thursdays of the month excluding holidays. Contact the Parish Office to begin the process of having your child baptized.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK & ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Those who are seriously ill or facing surgery, as well as those in danger of death, should receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Please call the Parish Office and ask for one of our priests.

CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Adults who wish to be baptized, or who have been baptized in another Christian faith and wish to become Catholic, or who have been baptized Catholic and wish to be confirmed and receive Holy Communion, are invited to join the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. Please contact Alice White at 631-805-2133 or e-mail at Alicem9@icloud.com to begin the process.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Adults who have been baptized Catholic and who have received Holy Communion but who still need the Sacrament of Confirmation should enroll in our Adult Confirmation Classes. Please contact Deacon Robert Becker at 631-226-6175 or e-mail to rabecker@optimum.net at the Parish Office.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE

Please contact the Parish Office at least SIX MONTHS before the desired date of your wedding.

PREPARING FOR

Sunday, July 3, 2016—The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said, "Rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Luke 10:20

Isaiah 66:10-14c

The prophet Isaiah speaks to the Jews who have returned from forced exile in a foreign land to find their beloved city Jerusalem with its Temple in utter ruin. To offer them hope, he speaks of God endowing the city with all the characteristics of a nurturing mother who will comfort them, her children. Though the city is destroyed, the people are to rejoice because God will undo the destruction and spread prosperity like a river. Therefore, the people are urged to celebrate and be comforted. This is an old message that is new today in our own community where many have experienced similar losses in natural disasters.

Galatians 6:14-18

Throughout the entire letter to the church at Galatia, from which we have been reading for the past four weeks, Paul defends his teaching authority against those who insist that new Christians embrace not just Jesus but also the Law of Moses by being circumcised. For Paul the Gospel message is simple and freeing: embrace the cross of Christ and salvation is yours. He is overwhelmed by the realization that in Christ we are made entirely new and have become heirs of the salvation Jesus won by his blood. They, and we, are a "new creation" who need nothing more than Christ.

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Just as the Jewish exiles in the first reading rejoiced at returning to Jerusalem, the seventy-two disciples that Jesus sent out returned to him rejoicing. Jesus sent them out to tell people about the coming of the kingdom of God and gave them power over evil. When the disciples returned, they rejoiced that even demons were subject to them. But Jesus responded by reminding them that their power came from him and that it is salvation, not power, that is the real cause of rejoicing. "Rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

Gospel Reflection Questions....

After reading next Sunday's Gospel take some time to pray on it before you come to Mass. Use the questions below to aid your reflection.

1. Jesus sent seventy-two disciples out because at the time there were seventy-two known nations. What would such symbolism mean in our times? In what ways are you a laborer in this abundant harvest?
2. Why does Jesus call us lambs? And why does Pope Francis insist we stay lambs? What kind of lambs does he think we should be?

Christ says to the 72 disciples in today's Gospel, "Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road."

Like lambs ... Don't become wolves ... Because, at times, temptation makes us think: 'But this is difficult, these wolves are cunning and I will be even more cunning than them, eh? Lamb. Not a fool, but a lamb. Lamb. With Christian astuteness, but always a lamb. Because if you are a lamb, he defends you. But if you feel strong like a wolf, he does not defend you, he leaves you alone, and the wolves will eat you alive. Like a lamb.' ...

One cannot walk as a Christian without joy, one cannot walk as a lamb without joy, Christians who are constantly complaining and whining are not doing any favors for the Lord or the Church.

Pope Francis: A True Christian Must be Like a Lamb February 17, 2014
